NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

To be held by the Etobicoke York Community Council
(Under the Planning Act)

Request to Amend the Zoning By-law Application Number 23 203652 WET 07 OZ

Location of Application: 135 Plunkett Road
Applicant: Sajecki Planning Inc.

Date: May 13, 2024
Time: 9:30 a.m. or as soon as possible thereafter
Place: Council Chamber, Etobicoke Civic Centre, 399 The West Mall, and by Video Conference

PROPOSAL

The application to amend the Zoning By-law 569-2013 would permit a residential development comprising of six blocks of stacked, back-to-back townhouses, approximately 14.5 metres in height with a residential gross floor area of 12,847 square metres and a floor space index (FSI) of 1.72 times the area of the lot for the property at 135 Plunkett Road. The development would contain a total of 151 dwelling units and provide 164 vehicular parking spaces in an underground parking garage. The site is presently zoned to permit detached dwellings, community centres, parks, schools, and places of worship.

Detailed information regarding the proposal, including background information and material may be obtained by contacting Lorelea Tulloch, Senior Planner, at 416-338-2040, or by email at Lorelea.Tulloch@toronto.ca.

Further information can be found at www.toronto.ca/135PlunkettRd.

PURPOSE OF PUBLIC MEETING

Etobicoke York Community Council will receive input and review the proposal and any other material placed before it, in order to make recommendations on the application. These recommendations will then be forwarded to Toronto City Council for its consideration.

You can follow the meeting online at www.youtube.com/TorontoCityCouncilLive.

FURTHER INFORMATION

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of Toronto on the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk Attention: Nancy Martins, Administrator, Etobicoke York Community Council, at the address, fax number or e-mail set out above.

Zoning By-law Amendment Appeal: If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the City of Toronto to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment is passed or refused, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submission at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-Law Amendment is passed or refused the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

People writing or making presentations at the public meeting: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, e-mails, presentations or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to City Clerk's Office at the telephone number or email address set out above.
