

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

To be held by the North York Community Council
(Under the Planning Act)

Request to Amend the Zoning By-law Application Number 22 139863 NNY 15 OZ

Location of Application: 2619 - 2621 Bayview Avenue and 6 Heathcote Avenue
Applicant: M Behar Planning & Design Inc

Date: September 24, 2024
Time: 9:30 a.m. or as soon as possible thereafter
Place: Council Chamber, 5100 Yonge Street, North York Civic Centre and by video conference

PROPOSAL

The application to amend the Zoning By-law proposes four three-storey townhouses at 2621 Bayview Avenue, and to modify the permitted six three-storey townhouse units and a two-storey single-detached house on the lands municipally addressed as 2619 Bayview Avenue and 6 Heathcote Avenue. Vehicular access to the townhouses would be provided from a shared 6-metre-wide driveway from Heathcote Avenue and the detached house would gain access from a separate driveway from Heathcote Avenue.

Detailed information regarding the proposal, including background information and material may be obtained by contacting Amie Chung, Planner, Community Planning at 416-338-3528, or by e-mail at Amie.Chung@toronto.ca.

Further information can be found at www.toronto.ca/2621bayviewave.

PURPOSE OF PUBLIC MEETING

North York Community Council will receive input and review the proposal and any other material placed before it, in order to make recommendations on the application. These recommendations will then be forwarded to Toronto City Council for its consideration.

You can follow the meeting at www.youtube.com/TorontoCityCouncilLive.

FURTHER INFORMATION

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of Toronto on the passing or refusal of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk attention: Matthew Green, Administrator, at the address, fax number or e-mail set out above.

Zoning By-law Amendment Appeal: If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the City of Toronto to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment is passed or refused, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submission at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-Law Amendment is passed or refused, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

People writing or making presentations at the public meeting: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, e-mails, presentations, or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to City Clerk's Office at the telephone number or email address set out above.

An online version of this Notice is available at <https://www.toronto.ca/city-government/public-notices-bylaws/>

Compliance with Provincial laws respecting Notice may result in you receiving duplicate notices.

Dated at the City of Toronto on August 29, 2024.

John D. Elvidge
City Clerk
